Byron Z. Moldo

Byron Moldo, Partner and Chair of Ervin Cohen & Jessup's Bankruptcy, Receivership and Creditors' Rights Department, will be speaking at the 2019 GGI Best Practices & Marketing Professionals Conference in Wichita, Kansas on Thursday, September 19. Byron will present "Substantive Consolidation" as part of a presentation of the Debt Collection, Restructuring & Insolvency Practice Group Meeting. His session will cover substantive and administrative consolidation of receivership entities, detailing when it is appropriate, and what the benefits may be. He'll also explain the differences between substantive consolidation and alter ego claims to help attendees understand the nuances that can lead to strategic advantages and decisions.
