

ISABELLE VIDRO

ASSOCIATE

ividro@ecjlaw.com

Direct 310.281.6391

Isabelle Vidro is an Associate in the Firm's Litigation Department. She focuses her practice on representing businesses and individuals throughout Southern California in a wide variety of commercial disputes. Isabelle appears regularly in federal and state courts and has led cases to settlement by negotiating on clients' behalves for agreeable settlement terms.

While attending the University of Southern California, Gould School of Law, she interned with public interest organizations Justice in Aging and the Harriett Buhai Center for Family Law. She was also a participant in the Hale Moot Court Honors Program and was selected as its Advocacy Vice Chair. Additionally, during her time in law school, Isabelle was a part of the USC Small Business Clinic and served as a Graduate Student Government Senator.

EDUCATION

J.D., University of Southern California, Gould School of Law

B.A., Vanderbilt University, Political Science and Spanish

PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation and Alternative Dispute Resolution

ADMISSIONS

California

LANGUAGES

Spanish